About the property

This beautifully presented Georgian-style, Grade II listed house spans five floors, offering a wonderful blend of period charm and contemporary living. Retaining a wealth of original features, including elegant wooden flooring, original chimneys and exposed period beams, the property combines historic character with stylish modern finishes to create a warm and inviting home.

The property benefits from south-east-facing windows, allowing natural light to fill the interiors, alongside a spacious kitchen with ample storage and a private roof terrace, providing an ideal space for outdoor relaxation.

Ideally positioned for excellent transport connections, the house is within easy reach of Oxford Circus and Tottenham Court Road underground stations, with Piccadilly Circus and Goodge Street stations also nearby. This prime central London location offers convenient access to the capital's extensive shopping, dining and entertainment options.
