An exceptional three-bedroom townhouse in one of Harrogate's most desirable central locations, finished to an impeccable standard with a perfect blend of period elegance and contemporary luxury.

This beautifully presented property offers exceptionally stylish, light-filled spaces throughout, complete with a luxurious master suite that is sure to impress. The same renowned developer behind the highly sought-after Old Courthouse conversion on the same road has delivered this outstanding renovation.

Tenure: Freehold

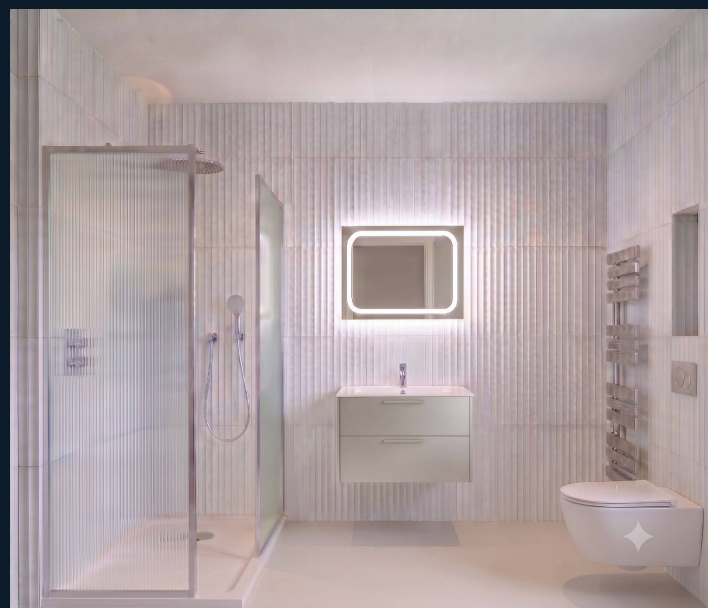

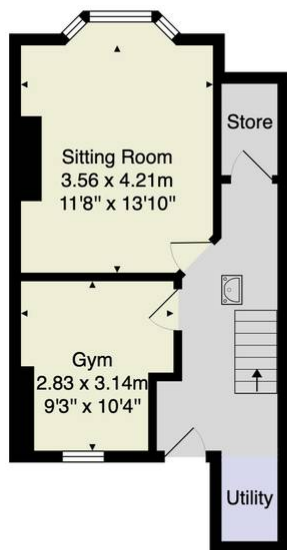

Key Features

- Stunning open-plan kitchen / living dining room with a large central island, solid stone work surfaces, integrated appliances, and abundant natural light from the bay window — the perfect space for both everyday living and entertaining.
- Elegant living room featuring panelling, built-in shelving, a statement chandelier, and generous proportions.
- Luxurious master bedroom with a serene neutral palette, abundant built-in storage, and a spa-like en-suite with a freestanding oval bath and walk-in shower.
- Two further double bedrooms, one with a beautiful vaulted ceiling and skylight, both finished to the same high specification.
- The townhouse retains an attractive period façade with traditional bay windows and sash-style detailing, the high ceilings fill the home with natural light.

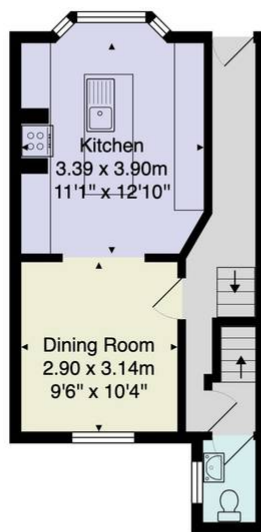

Externally, the property sits on a quiet street, moments from Harrogate's vibrant town centre, Valley Gardens, excellent restaurants, boutiques, and rail links to Leeds and beyond.

This is a rare opportunity to acquire a turn-key, beautifully renovated townhouse by a proven local developer in an enviable location. Early viewing is highly recommended.
