Pantyfedwen
Llanafan
Aberystwyth
SY23 4BA

Pantyfedwen is a delightful well-presented property located in the heart of the village. The accommodation which has been extended is best described as multi-purpose with possible annexe as highlighted on the attached floor plans. Externally (see drone photography) there is off-road parking to the fore with a large steep but terraced garden to the rear with access on the rear service lane.

The village of Llanafan is located towards the upper reaches of the Ystwyth Valley some 10 miles inland from Aberystwyth. The town is the largest in Ceredigion with a good selection of both local and National retailers in addition to educational and leisure facilities.

Local amenities include a primary school, general stores and public house are available at the nearby village of Llanilar which is but 4 miles travelling distance.
