Farlow Road, London, SW15

In need of modernisation, we offer this superb Victorian terraced freehold house with an east facing garden on a popular and quiet residential road in prime West Putney.

The ground floor offers bright and spacious open plan reception space leading to a kitchen at the rear. On the upper floors there are four bedrooms, a family bathroom and a shower room. Farlow Road is a short walk to the beautiful River Thames Embankment, the shops and restaurants of the Lower Richmond Road and the green open spaces of Putney Common. Comprehensive train, tube and bus links are all in walking distance and the house is in the catchment area for excellent local primary schools.

Subject to planning permission this property could be further extended both on the ground floor and also in to the loft space. This property is also chain free.
