Situation and Amenities

On the cusp of three counties, surrounded by delightful open countryside at the base of the Pennines is the historic village of Bowes which boasts a roman fort, medieval castle, ancient church, Dickens' inspiration for Dotheboys Hall and a recently refurbished pub/restaurant/coffee shop. There is an OFSTED outstanding primary school and OFSTED outstanding separate preschool with a children's secret garden and a playpark further down the village. Bowes has a strong community with regular events at the village hall and the social club. Just 4 miles away, in the thriving market town of Barnard Castle, there are a wide range of amenities including national and local retailers, sports centre and clubs, cultural and community hubs, the world-famous Bowes Museum, as well as both independent and state educational opportunities at primary, secondary and sixth form level.

The Property

This stunning stone-built period cottage offers a delightful blend of character and modern living. With superb views of the picturesque countryside and the historic Bowes Castle from the rear, this property is a true gem for those seeking a tranquil retreat.

The cottage features two well-proportioned bedrooms and two bathrooms, making it ideal for small families or couples. The heart of the home is a welcoming reception room, where exposed beams and stone walls create a warm and inviting atmosphere. The log burner adds a touch of comfort, perfect for cosy evenings in during the colder months. Recently refurbished to a high standard by the current owner, this property boasts contemporary finishes while retaining its period charm. The thoughtful renovations ensure that every corner of the cottage is both functional and aesthetically pleasing. With no onward chain, this home is ready for you to move in and start enjoying the peaceful village life. Whether you are looking for a permanent residence or a weekend getaway, this terraced house offers a unique opportunity to own a piece of history in a beautiful setting.
