PROPERTY DETAILS

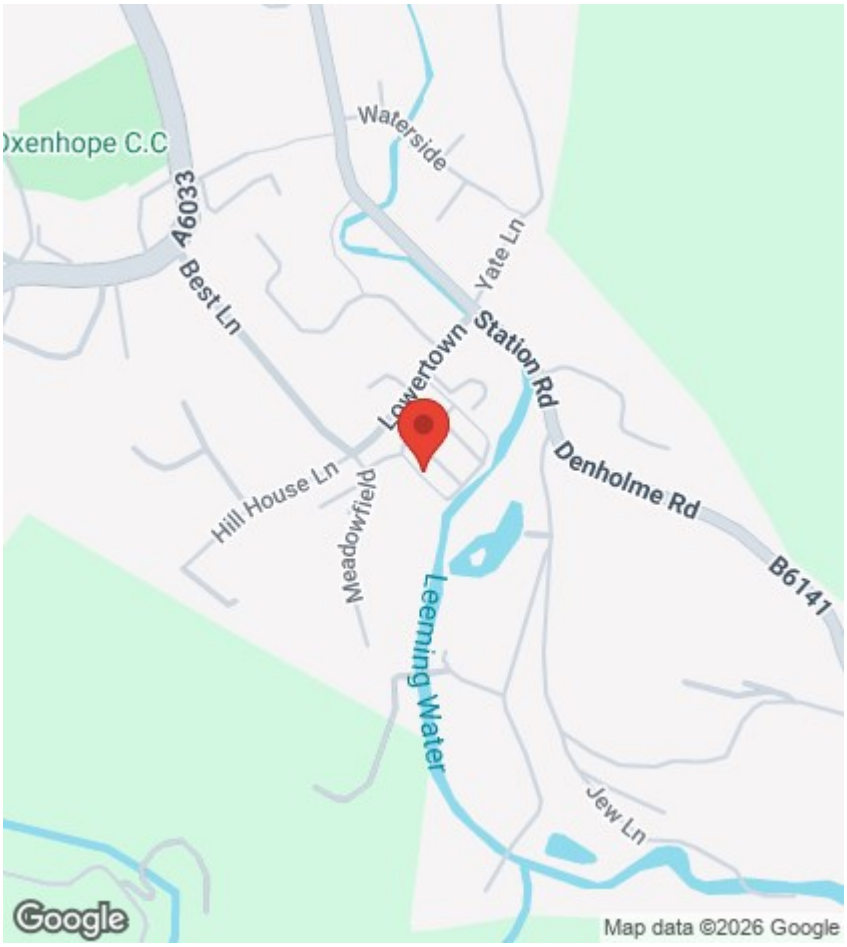

An excellent opportunity to acquire this charming two-bedroom, stone-built end terrace, occupying a peaceful position within the highly desirable village of Oxenhope. Having served as a successful residential rental property over recent years, this attractive home presents an appealing opportunity for investors, first-time buyers or those looking to establish themselves in a sought-after village setting.

The property offers well-proportioned accommodation arranged over two floors, benefiting from double glazing and central heating throughout. An entrance hall leads into a comfortable sitting room, featuring an attractive fireplace surround. To the rear, a well-equipped dining kitchen provides ample space for everyday cooking and dining, with direct access to the enclosed rear yard.

To the first floor, a spacious landing leads to a generous principal double bedroom, a further well-sized bedroom and a modern house bathroom, providing practical and versatile accommodation to suit a range of buyers.

Combining character, comfortable living space and an enviable village location, this delightful property represents excellent value for money in an increasingly desirable area. Whether you're taking your first step onto the property ladder, adding to an investment portfolio or simply seeking a manageable home in a charming Yorkshire village, this is an opportunity well worth exploring. Early viewing is highly recommended.

Oxenhope is a picturesque village surrounded by beautiful Yorkshire countryside, offering a wonderful balance of rural charm and everyday convenience. With local amenities, scenic countryside walks and the popular Worth Valley Railway nearby, the village enjoys a welcoming community atmosphere whilst remaining conveniently placed for access to Haworth, Keighley and surrounding towns.
