THE PROPERTY

Available to Rent from the Beginning of November,

This spacious semi-detached house offers well proportioned accommodation, making it an ideal family home. The property benefits from four sizeable bedrooms, providing ample space for families, guests or those requiring additional home-working or storage space.

The ground floor features a modern fitted kitchen alongside a spacious reception room/conservatory, offering a versatile and welcoming area for both relaxing and entertaining. The property also benefits from a stylish family bathroom, as well as a convenient additional WC on the ground floor.

Further benefits include ample storage throughout and off-street parking, adding to the practicality of the home. The property is well positioned for local amenities and transport links, with Twickenham Stadium approximately 1.2 miles away and Hounslow East Station approximately 1.3 miles away, providing convenient access to surrounding areas and central London.
