FULL DESCRIPTION

A unique 3-bedroom apartment with the wow factor! This desirable apartment is situated on the first floor of this conversion of one of the town's most notable buildings which is understood to be of Georgian origins. Stylishly modernised throughout but keeping its character and charm, the property is immaculate and includes high ceilings, a fireplace to the lounge and southward views over the lovely communal gardens. In addition to great storage within the flat, there are also storage areas in the basement and outbuilding. Off street parking is available and Spriggs Oak is set back from the road within its grounds. Only a short walk from all that Epping has to offer including its vibrant High Street with its cafes, restaurants and shops as well as the Central Line Underground Station, this is a real find being beautifully tucked away. Share of Freehold.
