

A fabulous, executive style home on the south side of the Lymington Road, forming part of a select development right by Chewton Bunny Nature Reserve which leads to the beach. Standing on arguably the best plot on the road, the gardens are truly special, wrapping around the house with a stunning parklike feel. Immaculate inside and out- a truly outstanding home in a favoured location.

Houses in Chewton Lodge are rarely available and this one is an absolute cracker. The current owners have meticulously refurbished the house and it now offers bright and breezy living space that totals towards 1700 sq ft with stylish fittings, designer bath/shower rooms and a magnificent conservatory extension overlooking the gardens. The position is perfect being quietly tucked away offering excellent privacy and seclusion and is just short stroll through the Nature Reserve to Highcliffe Beach and a level walk to the bustling village centre. If you are a keen gardener, this house is for you- the backdrop and planting is very special indeed.
