"A Story To Tell"

"A Story To Tell"

Dating back to the 1860s, this substantial and character-filled residence is rich in original Victorian features, from its striking mosaic-tiled entrance to its marble fireplaces and beautifully detailed period interior. Located on this ultra-convenient road just a short walk from the town centre, local amenities, hospital and mainline railway station offering access to London St Pancras in under an hour. The interior is well-kept and comprises entrance hallway, guest cloakroom/utility, free flowing kitchen/dining/family room with open fireplace and impressive bay-fronted living room also with working open fire. In addition there is a substantial cellar offering further versatile options. Upstairs there are five bedrooms arranged over two floors, each of the rooms is a great double size. In addition you will find the family bathroom and two other shower rooms. Outside the wrap around plot is generous and home to mature plantings. There is a brick outbuilding and gates to the rear with access for off road parking. With five generous double bedrooms, wonderfully versatile living space and wraparound gardens, this is a home with a remarkable past and plenty of scope for its next chapter.
