Description

You will love this attractively presented Victorian property with its excellent proportions and versatile accommodation that spans four floors. The basement conversion has taken this property to the next level, with plenty of space for a growing family, guests, teenagers and their friends and people who now spend some time working from home. With a large garden to the rear, backing onto the renowned Botanical Gardens, and the potential for off road parking at the front of the property (subject to regs). The property falls into catchment for first class schooling and its position, close to the main city hospitals and both universities, will make the property appeal to those with either a medical or academic background.

The area around 'The Botanics' is such a great place to live. A stones throw away from the hustle and bustle of the lower, cosmopolitan part of Ecclesall Road and within a short walk of the vibrant and fashionable neighbourhoods of Broomhill and Sharrowvale. This is a super property that has many attractive features and typically generous proportions from the Victorian era.
