Salvington Road, Worthing, BN13 2HN

Guide Price £1,700,000

Old Sussex House is a landmark Grade II listed Sussex farmhouse of remarkable scale, character and presence, set within established grounds on Salvington Road. Believed to date from the 1600s with later additions, this exceptional home offers a rare opportunity to acquire one of Worthing's most distinctive historic residences.

The main house provides extensive accommodation arranged over multiple floors, with elegant reception rooms, a substantial kitchen/breakfast room, study, library, cellar, eight bedrooms/upper rooms and excellent ancillary space. Period details include exposed timbers, inglenook fireplaces, leaded windows, flagstone floors and oak doors, creating an atmosphere rich in authenticity and charm.

The grounds are equally impressive, with formal gardens, mature planting, a private swimming pool and a wonderful sense of seclusion. A substantial barn, cottage/studio, garage, stores and further outbuildings provide exceptional flexibility for workshops, leisure space, home working, storage, garaging or annexe potential, subject to any necessary consents. A truly special home of history, individuality and future opportunity.
