Positioned within a sought after location and within catchment for various desirable schools, this semi-detached family home offers generous and flexible living space, ideal for a growing family. With four spacious bedrooms, three bathrooms and a modern style outbuilding; the home provides a fantastic balance of functionality, comfort and style.

A spacious entrance hallway with ample storage creates an immediate sense of functionality and flow. To the left, there is a practical double bedroom and a separate front reception room. The larger than average open-plan kitchen and dining room is flooded with natural light and leads onto a generous second reception room perfect for entertaining. Downstairs, you will also find a convenient downstairs shower room, emphasising practicality of this home. Upstairs, three well proportioned bedrooms provide comfortable accommodation, with the master bedroom featuring built-in wardrobes and plenty of natural light. The first floor also provides a modern family bathroom and eaves storage. Outside, a generous garden benefits from rear and side access and comes with a large self contained outbuilding, perfect for additional living space.

This quiet residential road is conveniently located to allow for a short commute within 0.4 miles of St Margarets Station. Easy access to bus routes, close to local shops, pubs, restaurants and Richmond riverside. Old Deer Park and Richmond Park are close by.
