Ingleway, N12

A beautifully renovated four bedroom semi-detached house situated on a quiet road in North Finchley. With four bathrooms, two reception rooms with an open plan kitchen / living room. This property is being offered chain free.

As you enter on the ground floor, you are met with the second reception room and a guest WC. To the rear of the house, the property has been extended and converted to create a large open-plan, modern kitchen and reception room, which opens out onto the low-maintenance garden.

The first floor comprises three good-sized double bedrooms, one of which has an en-suite shower room. There is also a family bathroom on this floor to accommodate the other two bedrooms.

The second floor has been converted to create the principal suite, complete with a shower room and plenty of space for storage. This home is being sold chain free.

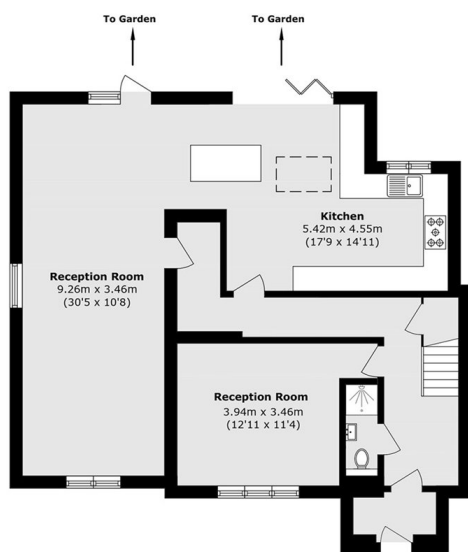

Ingleway is located in the heart of North Finchley providing easy access to West Finchley Station 0.9miles (Northern Line) and plenty of bus routes from Woodhouse Road. Friary Park is a walkable distance from the property.
