Description

Entering the property a bright hallway gives access into two bedrooms, the living room, the kitchen and into a modern, fully tiled family bathroom which has been fitted in a white suite. The living room overlooks the front of the property is a bright room with double aspect windows and ample space for the family to gather and relax. Overall, the property has three bedrooms, two doubles, both with fitted furniture and a further single bedroom which is currently being used as a study. The study/bedroom three has access into the garden via French doors and further benefits from having the use of a fully tiled en-suite shower room.

White wall and base units with glass display cabinets have been fitted in the kitchen, providing ample storage space. Integrated appliances include double oven and hob with extractor above, and there is further storage, plus space and plumbing for additional appliances in a separate utility room off the kitchen. The kitchen is open plan to the conservatory with vaulted ceiling and sliding patio doors giving access into the rear garden.

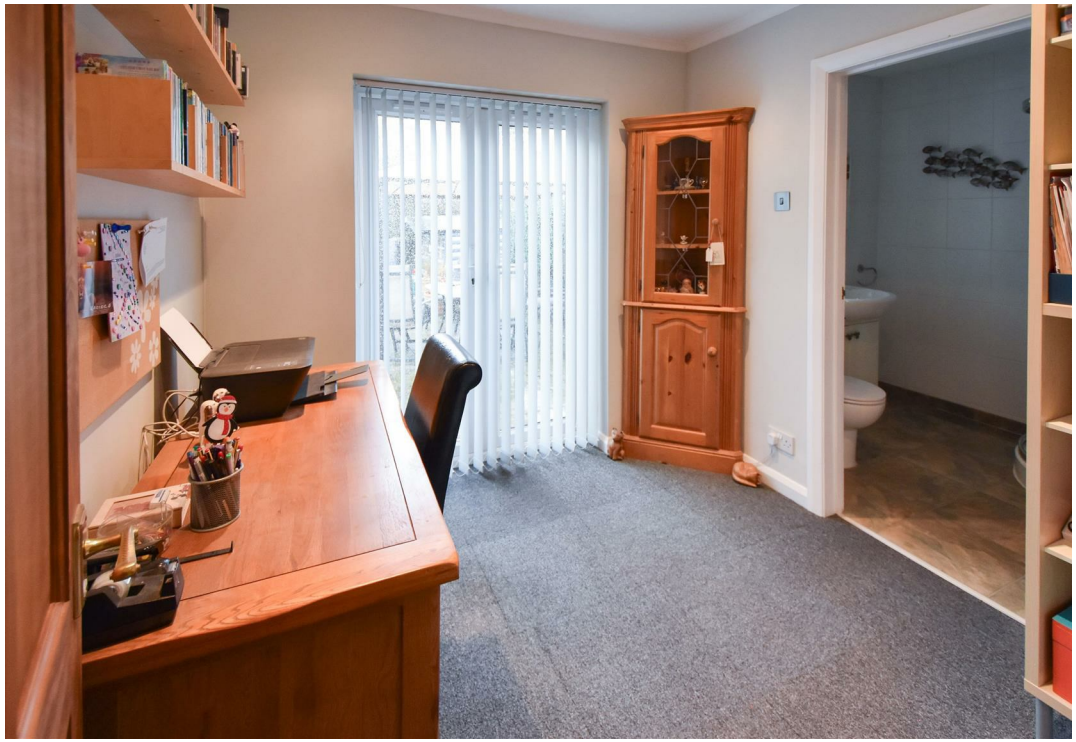

The rear garden is well-kept with mature borders and has a pleasant outlook to the rear over open farmland. There is a side access through to the front garden where there is parking for two vehicles on your own driveway which sits in front of a double width garage. The garage has a pedestrian door to the rear which gives access into the kitchen. The remainder of the front garden is laid to lawn and has potential for further parking if required.
