Positioned on the upper ground floor of this McCarthy & Stone development, is this delightful one bedroom apartment located within the town centre. Wonderfully light and airy and offering well presented accommodation, the apartment includes a double bedroom with built-in wardrobes, a lounge/diner with access to a fitted kitchen and a bathroom. Equipped with emergency pull cords and benefitting from the use of the communal lounge and laundry facilities and access to a resident house manager on site as well as overnight guest accommodation, this property is ideal for those seeking independent living but with the option of being involved in a community.
